More About RJon Robins:

In 2006, RJon Robins founded How To Manage a Small Law Firm in order to provide high-level law firm management and marketing advice, consultation and coaching to solo and small law firms across the United States.

The firm has since helped thousands of lawyers who subscribe to RJon's complimentary electronic newsletter, register to participate in his teleseminar classes, attend his CLE workshops and more than 500 more who have invested in his self-study audio programs and monthly membership-style coaching programs for starting and growing a "successful" law firm. RJon also conducts high-level mastermind weekend retreats and private VIP days that lawyers travel from around the country to attend and then rave about.
